

MARK S. SUMAN

Senior Vice President, Marketing and Strategic Planning

Mark Suman is a co-founder of National Airlines. He is responsible for market development, fleet planning, scheduling and revenue management, including yield management, pricing, sales, marketing and advertising.

Mr. Suman has more than 24 years of aviation experience. Prior to joining National Airlines, he was Senior Director, Market Planning at America West Airlines. Between 1981 and 1990, Mr. Suman was Vice President at Kurth & Co., Inc., a prestigious aviation consulting firm based in Washington, D.C. He also worked at the Civil Aeronautics Board for seven years, during which time the airline industry was deregulated.